

NORTHWEST FOLKLIFE

Strengthening our communities through arts & culture

Northwest Folklife's Participant Guidelines

We believe everyone involved in Northwest Folklife events including performers, volunteers, staff, and audience should experience our programs free from any harassment, threats, offensive language or actions. Please follow these guidelines to help ensure that we maintain this safe space.

While we support artistic expression, we acknowledge that Northwest Folklife's event are spaces welcome for all ages, backgrounds, and beliefs. Therefore, on all of the stages at all times there must be no objectionable language or images, including but not limited to: profanity, obscenity or vulgarity, racial/ethnic slurs, hate speech or prejudiced comments, personal insults, hostile comments and threatening language.

If you have any questions or need further clarity about these guidelines, please reach out to the Programming Team at (206) 684-4189 and we would be happy to chat with you. As it is our value to respond to the needs of artists, audience members, and participants, these guidelines are dynamic and may evolve through community input. We appreciate your engagement in Northwest Folklife's programming and hope that you will continue to communicate your interests and input to our staff.

Thank you for ensuring a safe and welcoming experience for all!
